Official News Release

INFORMATION WANTED ON VANDALISM SUSPECT AND VEHICLE

DATE: May 29, 2012

On Friday, March 16, 2012, at approximately 10:12 p.m., Burbank police officers responded to the 800 block of Hollywood Way to a vandalism that had just occurred. Officers observed a brick had been thrown through the window of an office owned by Dr. David Gordon, a Burbank City Councilmember. A review of a surveillance video shows the suspect arriving in a 2005-2006, Silver/Gray Toyota Tundra, 4DR, with a matching tonneau cover, chrome rims, and a sticker in the lower left corner of the rear window.

The suspect is described as a male (possibly white), approximately 5'10", heavy build, wearing a baseball cap, dark-colored, "hoodie" sweatshirt, with white writing on the front, and light-colored shorts. Anyone with additional information please contact Detective Kleinfeld at 818-238-3279.
